The remains of John Foster, aged 32 years, eldest son of J. L. Foster and wife of Hoxie, Ark., were buried here Saturday.

The members of the Eastern Star of Bismarck went to Elvins Tuesday to assist in instituting a chapter there.

Many farmers are beginning to fully realize the necessity of a county and State stock law. The expense item of maintaining fencing is the great expense to farmers. This county and State has certainly reached that stage of advanced civilization where we can do away with primitive, useless and expensive methods.

Do Not Neglect the Children.

At this season of the year the first annual loss of a child's life should have immediate attention. The best thing that can be given is Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy followed by castor oil as directed with each bottle of the remedy. For sale by E. M. Laakman.

DOE RUN EVENTS.

Miss Nellie Ross visited friends at Elvins last Friday.

Miss Lizzie Steinfel visited friends in Bonne Terre last Friday.

Mr. J. M. Elvins spent a few days this week at Cape Girardeau.

Mr. Earl Cook of Wilson City, Ill., is visiting Mr. Wm. Black this week.

Mr. Joe Byrnes made a business trip to Bonne Terre this week.

Mr. Mart Gidley of Bonne Terre visited his sister, Mrs. Walter Palmer, Sunday.

Miss Rooney Fraser of Flat River spent a few days here this week visiting relatives.

Dr. Engas attended the Children's Day exercises and basket dinner at Copenhagen Sunday.

John Black returned to Elvins Wednesday after spending a few days with home folks.

The Elvins baseball team played the Doe Run team at this place last Sunday. Another victory for Doe Run, the score being 6 to 0.

The moonlight picnic and band concert given in the West End Park Tuesday evening was a great success. Although a little rain fell in the afternoon, and the evening seemed cloudy, a large crowd gathered and were entertained until a late hour.

Thursday evening, June 11, "The Hague" met at the residence of Mr. J. M. Elvins, in Doe Run. A number of new-by-laws were read and adopted; also Miss Minnie Schafer was elected critic for the next two months. Besides other business a good program was well rendered, refreshments served and a good time had by all.

Tonight.

If you would enjoy tomorrow take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets tonight. They produce an agreeable laxative effect, clear the head and cleanse the stomach. Price, 25 cents. Samples free at Laakman's drug store.

U. R. Nichols was drowned in Black River near Mill Spring on the 9th while crossing in a skiff.

Colic and Diarrhoea.

Pains in the stomach, colic and diarrhoea are quickly relieved by the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. When in need of such a medicine, give it a trial. For sale by E. M. Laakman.

ESTHER ITEMS.

Mrs. Will Barr is on the sick list. Little Miss Hazel Dobbins spent Sunday in Farmington.

Mrs. Robert Burgess and Mrs. Will Trauernicht spent Tuesday in Flat River.

Mrs. Pearl Buxton and children returned to their home south of Farmington last Sunday, after a week's visit here with the families of her brothers, Messrs. Clark and John Beezley.

Philip Hastings of Knob Lick died at this place Saturday, June 10th, 1908, after only a few days' illness suffering from pneumonia. His remains were taken to Doe Run for burial Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jones and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Trauernicht, Mrs. Kenneth Dobbins, Miss Emma Trauernicht and others attended the Lutheran church dedication in Flat River Sunday.

Children's Day exercises at the M. E. Church, South, here Sunday night were very interesting and proved much credit to Miss Mattie Boyd's and Mrs. Oliver Johnson's untiring efforts in training the children. The program opened with a song by the school, after which a prayer was offered by the pastor, Rev. Lord's, Mrs. Johnson's, Mrs. Dobbins', Misses Boyd's and Rollins' classes recited "Faith, Hope and Love," after which a solo was rendered by little Miss Glenna Hughes. Little Misses Lottie Thomas, Alma Ramsey, Olive Wampler, Pearl Thornton and Alma Craggett all recited very beautifully. Mrs. Lord sang a solo, after which the evening offering was taken by four little girls, Misses Frayne and Gladys Mackley, Glenna Hughes and Olive Wampler. The writer wishes to thank Mrs. J. B. Thomas for her generous help and Miss Lillian Boyd for her beautiful alto voice. Such helpers in the Lord's work are always appreciated. E. M. P.

BUSINESS COLLEGE NOTES.

Miss Effa Beas has accepted a position as stenographer and bookkeeper in the office of Marvin A. Young, real estate and insurance.

Miss Mabel Jennings of St. Louis, niece of Prof. Jennings, well known to Farmington people, enrolled in our shorthand department Monday.

Miss Clara Davis has the special distinction of being the first graduate of our typewriting department, having passed successfully the certificate test.

Our new souvenir booklet and enrollment blanks will soon be ready for mailing. We want to send these to all young people and parents interested in practical education.

Edward Cunningham has accepted a position as stenographer and bookkeeper in the office of Evans & Howell at Elvins. Ed is a deserving young man and we trust he may succeed in his new work.

Prof. Moothart would like to engage the services of several energetic young men to act as agents or representatives of his school in different Southeast Missouri counties. A very liberal proposition is made to all who are qualified to do this work. If interested write to him promptly for particulars.

The Poplar Bluff Republican says there is a belled rat that runs around the streets at night in that place, and an effort will be made to run it down.
